MULE SPOKEN—Mr. J. S. Higgins had a 3-year old mule stolen from him this week. It is a mouse colored animal, 14 hands high, and Mr. Higgins signs for information concerning him.

MR. G. B. WATERS' School at Willow Grove, closed his school with a public entertainment of much merit. Our "old man" was present and pronounced the exhibition a well deserved success.

The negroes that tried to bulldoze Pete Hampton a year or so ago, with bad looking pistols, have been captured and are now serving out the fines and imprisonment assessed against them at the last Circuit Court.

A MEMBER of theories are advanced with regard to the sending of the snake at Mr. Traynor's. Some assert that it was caused by an accumulation of water under the neck too great for the contracted space, &c., &c. We hope our scientific men will come to time with a proper explanation of the wonder.

New Improved Clifton light Mowing Machines at $85. Weaver & Evans, Agents.

RECEIVED this week by John H. Craig, from New York, a new lot of Hamburg Bibles and Insertions.

The very best of order prevailed at the Concert on Wednesday evening, a fact which we are exceedingly glad to note.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.—The usual services attending the administration of the Lord's Supper, will begin at this Church tomorrow at 11 o'clock.

No merchant in this part of the State, has had a better run of custom than our enterprising friend, John H. Craig, whose Temple of Fashion is headquarters for every body.

LADIES who have not yet supplied themselves with Summer apparel, can find anything they want at John H. Craig's Trade Palace. This stock is full, owing to frequent purchases from the large cities.

PARTY.—The pupils of Miss Logan's school are going to have a party for their school to night and are anticipating a happy time. We were honored with an invitation and hope it will be our pleasure to attend.

The most wonderful bargain ever obtained in Stanford, can now be had of N. R. Tevis, and we would advise you to call and examine his goods at once. He has knocked the bottom clean out of high prices.

GOING TO THE TOWNS.—To-morrow some fifteen or twenty of our young ladies and gentlemen will take a drive to the Towns. The trip has been in contemplation for some time, and we trust that the anticipation of a grand time will be fully realized.

MISS LUCY BUTTERFIELD, at the Millinery Establishment of John H. Craig, can supply the trade with all the new and desirable shapes in Hats and Bonnets and all colors in Silks and Ribbons and Flowers, during the entire season. The stock will be kept complete until the Fall trade commences.

OUR old friend, C. S. Nield, editor of the Harrodsburg Observer, will accept our thanks for special favors. Mr. Nield, besides being one of the best fellows in the town, is one of the most promising, and it takes no prophet or son of a prophet to foresee that he will yet do honor to the profession he has chosen.

MARRIED, at the "Bee House" yesterday morning, by the Rev. S. S. McRoberts, Mr. Hayden J. McRoberts, of Monticello, Mo., to Miss Sallie A. Bruce, of this place. Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple repaired to the Depot and amid the hearty congratulations of a large circle of friends took the train for their Western home.

THE ALPHA.—We have received two issues of this little paper published by Mr. A. B. Elkin, at Lancaster. It is gotten up entirely by himself and reflects considerable credit on him. This small start may be the initial step to a bright and honored newspaper career. Remember young man, that "great oaks from little acorns grow" and let your motto be "onward and upward."

COMMENCEMENT SERMON.—The Court House was filled to its utmost capacity last Sabbath to hear the Rev. D. Young, of Nicholasville, preach the Commencement Sermon of the Stanford Female College. His text was, "For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain," and his sermon is spoken of as a most superior and scholarly effort. At night he preached at the Presbyterian Church, also to a crowded house, on the subject of "Faith." Mr. Young has a splendid delivery and is a most entertaining speaker.

SHERIFF FELAND requests us to set him right in regard to the statement of our Crab Orchard correspondent, who said that he had returned Mr. James R. Lawless delinquent although Lawless held his receipt for the amount of his taxes. Mr. Feland admits that Mr. Lawless has such a receipt, but says he sent it to him at Cincinnati, where he stayed most of his time, trusting to his honor to forward the amount which he failed to do, and as he had nothing here that he could make it out of, his only recourse was to return him delinquent, which he did.

HOUSE BURNED.—A party of masked men, desiring to rid the country of a disreputable bawdy kept by the notorious William Patton, went to her house, which is six or eight miles West of Crab Orchard, and after severely flogging the inmates, which beside the women, included three or four sporting young men who happened to be there, set fire to the establishment, and in a very short time the den of iniquity was among the things that were. This is the second time Mrs. Patton has been similarly suffered in that neighborhood and it is about time she was leaving for more genial quarters.

A SEVERE ACCIDENT.—On Sunday last Mrs. Greenup Jones, Miss Eliza Jones, and Miss Bettie McRoberts were returning from church in a buggy, their horse became frightened near Mr. John Bright's, and ran off, overturning the buggy and throwing the inmates violently to the ground, very seriously wounding Miss Jones, who is severely cut about the head and bruised in her shoulders and back to such an extent as to produce almost total paralysis. She was taken home and has since been in a critical condition. Mrs. Jones and Miss McRoberts fortunately escaped with but few bruises.

PERSONAL NOTES.—Miss Nannie Perkins, one of the most lovely young ladies of Somerset, passed through town this week en route to her home. She has been a pupil of Daughters College, Harrodsburg, for several years, from which she graduated last week with the highest honors. Miss Glad Givens, of the Hustonville neighborhood, was in town Saturday. Miss Sophia Lisle, a lovely young lady from Lebanon, is visiting Miss Annie Craig. Miss Lizzie Moreland is a guest of the Misses Blain. Miss Fannie Rodgers, of Harrodsburg, is visiting for a short time at the household of Dr. T. B. Montgomery. Miss Miss Edith, of Crab Orchard, is at Mr. D. B. Edmon's. We clip the following from the Glasgow Times: Miss Lela Barton, of Stanford, is paying a visit to friends in Burkville. She was graduated from Alexander College last year. If the persuasions of several eligible young men of this place can have the desired effect, the pleasant capital of Lincoln county will soon mourn the permanent removal of one of its brightest belles to this latitude.

Mr. W. C. GIBSON, editor of the Somerset Reporter, was in town this week on his way home from a trip to Nashville.

THE Rev. L. G. Barber will assist Mr. Crow in the Communion Services at the Presbyterian Church to-morrow and Sunday.

QUARTERLY COURT.—This Court was in session this week, with 70 cases on the docket, all of which were disposed of in two days by Judge Lytle, who gets right down to business in the Court room. Most of the cases were of minor importance.

COMMERCIAL HOTEL.—Messrs. J. H. & S. H. Shanks, have purchased the Commercial Hotel, lately owned by Mr. Samuel M. Carson, for $3,722. Mr. Carson will continue to keep it for a time at least, but we understand that the Messrs. Shanks are open to proposals either for its rent or purchase.

CUMBERLAND FAIR HOTEL.—This new and elegant Hotel is now open for the reception of visitors and to those desiring a season of rest and recreation, we know of no place that offers more attractions. The enterprising proprietors, Messrs. Myers & Owens, have spared no expense to make the improvements first-class in all appointments, and the romantic surroundings, mineral waters, hunting, fishing, bathing, &c., go to make up a most charming and healthy Summer retreat. See advertisement in another column.

STANFORD FEMALE COLLEGE.—This institution of learning, which is an honor to our town and county, and in which every citizen should feel an individual interest, closed its session of 1876-7, last night, in a manner that shows its high standard of education and the wonderful drill that the pupils are put through. Mr. Truheart, by his untiring efforts to build up such a school in our midst, deserves the kindest consideration of our people, and merits their warmest support. Patrons here, you who have sought to educate, and when her College re-opens on the 2nd Monday of September, give her a school that will do honor alike to yourselves and her merits.

AN EARTHQUAKE.—Our citizens have been greatly exercised for the past week or so, over a most singular occurrence on the farm of Mr. Cornelius Traylor, four miles from town. The earthquake, it such it was, occurred on the morning of June the 3rd, and was witnessed by Mr. Traylor, who was watering his horse in the creek. It began with a low rumbling sound similar to distant thunder, and then commenced an upheaval of the rock across the bed of the creek, as if a huge mole was plowing its way beneath it. The rock was thrown up some foot or so, the break being three feet across and extending some 150 feet in length. Subsequent investigation with a drill showed that the crack was of considerable depth and the sound of the drill on the rock beneath gave evidence that it was shivered. A number of our citizens have visited the spot and the interest manifested has been very great. Can't some of our scientific men explain the wonder?

LAND, STOCK AND CROP ITEMS.

G. A. Lackey sold a lot of 25 lambs this week that averaged 80 pounds, at 44 cents.

On Monday John S. Owsley sold to G. A. Lackey, a roan bull 10 months old, out of Teasoe by Chesterfield for $100.

Mr. Thompson, of Versailles, bought of Mat. Sandridge, 20 head 1600 pound cattle at $5 25 per hundred, to be delivered July first.

Mr. Stearns, of the Cincinnati Stock yards, bought of Bob Logan, a lot of cattle averaging between 1500 and 1600 at $5 25 per hundred.

G. W. Alford bought during last week, 300 head lambs, weight 60 pounds and upwards at 44 cents. T. J. Foster bought 150 at about the same price.

At the Columbus Ohio, races this week, Bill Dillon, the property of Bailey Withers, won the two mile heat race, one in 1:47 and the other in 1:52.

W. C. Weaver, of Kirkville, took 600 pounds of honey from one Langstrath beehive—large size, last Thursday. Who can beat that?—[Lancaster Alpha.]

A gentleman who has recently traveled over the Knob portion of this county says there has not been for twenty years, a prospect for a full wheat crop as there is now.

Mr. John Miller, who lives near Lancaster, has a lot of eight acres in wheat, which he expects to yield at least 300 bushels. This, at its present price is about as much per acre as a man ought to want to make.

G. W. Alford, who has just returned from Louisville, reports that the market for hogs has completely broken down. There is but little demand for them at all, the very best bringing not over $4 80 per hundred pounds.

RYE.—Mr. Jack Dodd, who lives near Wayneburg, has sent us a rye straw that measures eight feet. We hardly think our best blue grass farmers can exceed this at least if they can, we would like to hear from them.

G. P. Roney lately sold 100 fat mountain butters at $3 65 per head, after they were sheared. I. O. Robinson sold last week 60,000 pounds of lamb, raised from 64 acres of land, to Scott & Morgan, of Lexington, at $5 65 per cwt., delivered. G. P. Ramsey sold last Saturday in Lexington, 41 calves at $52 50 per head, and 34 2-year olds at $40 per head.—[Winchester Democrat.]

LOUISVILLE LIVE STOCK MARKET.—Monday, June 11, 1877.—Cattle—Market active and firm, with small advance. Best shippers heavy weight, $5 25 to $5 75; butchers $4 75 to $5 25; medium, $4 to $4 50; common, $2 50 to $3 50. Hogs—Better feeling; small advance; best $4 25 to $4 40; common, $3 50 to $4. Sheep and Lambs—Market active. Sheep, $3 25 to $4 10; Lambs, $5 to $6.

COURTY DAY IN LEXINGTON.—Capt. N. S. Offutt reports about 250 head of cattle on the Lexington market Monday; prices from 31 to 5 cents. He sold 33 head of calves (steers) at $25 per head; calves, good medium work stock brought from $85 to $125; horses from $15 to $120 per head; common; fancy geldings in request at good prices, from $130 to $200. Engagements for fat cattle lively at $5 50 per hundred and upwards. Moderate crowd in town.—[Lexington Times.]

THE TRUE DOLLAR.

Some Honorable Conundrums for our Law-Makers to Answer.

From the organization of this government down to the year 1873, the silver dollar was a legal tender for all debts, public and private, so declared by act of Congress and so recognized, without question or complaint, by all men. Not only so, but all legislation on the subject shows that the silver dollar was regarded as the standard dollar, the gold dollar being regulated by it from time to time. As an instance, may be mentioned the Act of 1834, reducing the gold dollar from 24 75 grains to 23 2 1/2 grains—that is, deciding how many grains of gold should be worth one dollar in silver, thus treating the silver dollar as, and virtually pronouncing it to be the true dollar. Now, in view of these solid, historical facts, can any thing be more impudent, or more insane, than the pretense of those who oppose the recoinstitution of silver that it would be an act of bad faith on the part of the government to renege its?

GOOD HOME TESTIMONY FROM BOYLE COUNTY.—I have used the Excelsior Reaper and Mower Combined for the last eight years, and can say I consider it in every respect the best Reaper and Mower in the market. To show my preference I contemplate buying a new Excelsior in order to get all the late improvements, Jointed Reel, Tiller, Adjustable Pitman, &c.

JOHN TENNEY.

The Excelsior Reaper and Mower, 6-foot cut, I purchased two years ago has given complete satisfaction. It is very light draft for two horses. The arrangement for folding the bar, to pass through gates and bars, and the Jointed Reel for taking up down and short grain, are grand improvements. The repairs has not cost me twenty-five cents in two years.

A. E. LOGAN.

I have used a great many different and good machines, but I consider the Miamiburg Excelsior by far the best machine in the field.

J. E. COWAN.

Boyle Co., May 1st, 1877.

The Excelsior Reaper and Mower purchased two years ago has given entire satisfaction. In all essential points, I consider it superior to any machine in the market.

J. L. SPEARS.

Danville, Ky., April 28, 1877.

HOME TESTIMONY.—I have owned and used an Excelsior for about five years, and have also owned and used several other machines, but I regard the Excelsior superior to any machine I am acquainted with. It is very strong, runs light, and cuts perfectly. I have used mine in cutting briars and bushes, and have spent almost nothing for repairs.

WM. G. LACKY.

Stanford, Ky., May 17th, 1877.

HARVESTING MACHINES.—The Excelsior, with its late improvements—new jointed Reel, adjustable Pitman Connection, new Tilling Device, wrought-iron, steel-faced concave guards, 36-inch drive wheels, 6-foot cut, is unequalled by any machine in the market. Read this home testimony from Maj. Wharton, Clerk Washington County Court, made at Springfield, May 3d, 1877: I bought the Excelsior Combined Reaper and Mower, made by Hoover & Co., Miami, Ohio, in 1867, and have cut over thirty to sixty acres of grain and grass each year since. I cut last season with my machine as heavy tangled German Millet as I ever saw, some of it six feet high. Most of it was cut with the Reaper—all but about one acre, which we had to mow. Now this was done with a machine which had been in use ten years, and I have never seen any machine except the Excelsior that would do good work after five years use, and would give them last that long. I am satisfied that the Excelsior has no equal either as a Mower or Reaper.

J. L. WHARTON.

Here is another from Elias Barnes, Jr., Richmond Ky.: "I believe it to be far superior to any machine made. Will do more work, run lighter, last longer, and is easier managed than any harvesting machine in the country. The Jointed Reel alone is worth $50 to any machine, and no other machine has it. The high wheels get over ground easily with one team. Last season I cut sixty acres madow and thirty acres grain. No expense for repairs."

M. C. N. FITZPATRICK, of the same county, says: "As for convenience, light of draft, height of wheels, width of cut, the Excelsior is in my estimation."

A new stock of Water-Coolers, Cream-Freezers, Cooler-Stands, Chamber-Sets, Tin Ware, etc., offered at low prices.

We can sell you a very fine saddle at $5, and a No. 1, good one at $15.

OUR TWO CENT SOAP.

Recipe.—Put into an iron kettle five gallons of soft water, to this add five pounds of Pure Soda Ash, and three pounds of unslacked Lime; boil the mixture three quarters of an hour, then dip all out into a tub, allowing the tub and let it sit until it settles (the lye will rise quite clear), then dip it off and put into your kettle; to this add three gallons of refuse grease, measured and boil from two to three hours. If solid or rich grease is used, add one fourth less.

You may try it by dropping a little in a saucepan, if it hard, it is done. Yet, when you pour it into a tub, let it remain until next day, then cut in bars to suit yourself.

MOURNING GOODS.—We make a specialty of Mourning Goods. We have Black Cashmeres, Bombazine, Black Alpaca, Black Grenadine, Black Lawn, Black Percale, Black Crepe for Veils and Trimming, Black and White Ruches, Black Borders, Handkerchiefs, Black Lisle Silk and Kid Gloves, Black Fans, &c., &c.
